

September 30, 2021 – Criminal Case Adjournment Dates

The Ontario Court of Justice will be closed on Thursday September 30, 2021 in recognition of the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. See the public statement by Ontario's three Chief Justices here and the Ontario Court of Justice's Notice regarding the closure's impact on criminal, family, and Provincial Offences Act (POA) matters here.

If you have a criminal court appearance on September 30, 2021 do not attend court. Your matter will be presumptively adjourned to another court date. The court will adjourn your matter without you being present, using a court order called a "bench warrant with discretion". The chart below sets out the new court date your matter will be adjourned to, depending on the courthouse where your matter is located.

The chart below also sets out the connection details for your next court date. For further information about remote appearances, including technical information and best practices, please see the Remote Hearing Guides on the Ontario Court of Justice website.

Not sure about your next court date in a criminal case? To see a list of cases that are scheduled for that day or the next day at a particular courthouse, go to the Daily Court Lists website: <http://www.ontariocourtdates.ca/>.

If you are unsure about the date of your next court appearance, whether you are required to attend court on that date, or whether you should be attending in person or by remote technology, please contact your lawyer. If you do not have a lawyer, please contact the courthouse by email or telephone.
